Belize

Belize has established itself as one of the most reliable offshore jurisdictions in Central America, offering investors a modern legal framework and strong asset protection laws.

A Belize International Business Company (IBC) is grounded in the International Business Companies Act of Belize, which provides complete tax exemption on income, capital gains, and dividends. This makes Belize offshore company formation one of the most cost-effective and secure options for global entrepreneurs.

Incorporation is straightforward, often completed in 24 to 48 hours, with electronic documents issued immediately. A Belize offshore company allows 100% foreign ownership, does not impose exchange controls, and requires no local directors or shareholders, ensuring flexibility for international operations.

To register an offshore company in Belize, you must choose a unique company name, appoint at least one director and one shareholder, and submit the required incorporation documents to the Belize International Financial Services Commission (IFSC). The process typically takes one to two business days, making Belize one of the fastest offshore jurisdictions for company formation. Offshore companies must also have a registered agent and a local office in Belize to comply with legal requirements under the Belize Companies Act.
