OVZA

Costa Rica

Costa Rica has become a trusted hub for international business in Central America, offering both credibility and flexibility to foreign investors. Many entrepreneurs choose to register a Costa Rica company because of its political stability, strategic location between two oceans, and a competitive tax environment.

By registering a Sociedad de Responsabilidad Limitada (S.R.L., equivalent to an LLC), investors gain access to limited liability, no restrictions on foreign ownership, and favorable treatment of offshore income.

Company formation in Costa Rica is efficient, with most registrations completed in about 4–5 working days. Non-residents are welcome to incorporate, and there are no currency controls, making it easy to engage in international trade and investment.

Limited Liability Company (LLC)

Incorporation in 4-5 Business Days

100% Foreign Ownership Permitted

Ownership Details Remains Private

No Residency Requirements for Shareholders or Managers

Local and International Bank Accounts

To register an offshore company in Costa Rica, you must choose a company name and appoint at least two quota holders (shareholders) and a manager. The most common structure is the Sociedad de Responsabilidad Limitada (S.R.L.), equivalent to an LLC. Incorporation is typically completed in 4–5 business days, and OVZA provides full support with preparation, filing, and delivery of corporate documents.
