St. Kitts and Nevis

St. Kitts and Nevis provides a powerful offshore foundation in the Caribbean, particularly through its widely used Nevis IBC (International Business Corporation) structure.

This corporate vehicle operates under a reliable common law system and the Nevis Business Corporation Ordinance, ensuring a secure and flexible platform. Key financial advantages include a zero-tax environment, featuring no corporate income, capital gains, or withholding taxes, which allows for unrestricted profit reinvestment and international transactions.

International Business Company (IBC)

2 Days Incorporation Only!

No Local Director or Shareholder Required

Electronic Documents Issued for Global Use

Strong Privacy Framework under Nevis Law

Worldwide Banking Support

An International Business Company (IBC) in St. Kitts and Nevis can be formed in approximately 24–48 hours and requires a minimum of one director and one shareholder, who can be either individuals or corporate entities.

The IBC enjoys 100% tax exemption on income derived from international business activities, while shareholder and director information remains confidential and is not part of the public record. All IBCs must be incorporated through a licensed registered agent in St. Kitts and Nevis.
