- (d) the court shall determine whether each dissenting shareholder, as to whom the corporation requests the court to make such determination, is entitled to receive payment for his shares. If the corporation does not request any such determination or if the court finds that any dissenting shareholder is so entitled, it shall proceed to fix the value of the shares, which for the purpose of this section, shall be the fair value as of the close of business on the day prior to the shareholders' authorisation date, excluding any appreciation or depreciation directly or indirectly induced by such corporate action or its proposal. The court may appoint an appraiser to receive evidence and recommend a decision on the question of fair value; and

PARTXII-DISSOLUTION

117. Manner of effecting dissolution.

(1) Except as otherwise provided in its Articles of Incorporation, a corporation may be dissolved if, at a meeting of shareholders, the holders of two-thirds of all outstanding

(2) When all the shareholders entitled to vote on a proposal to dissolve shall consent in writing to a dissolution, then no meeting of shareholders shall be necessary.

(3) Articles of Dissolution shall be filed with the Registrar of Corporations in accordance with the provisions of section 4.

(4) The Articles of Dissolution shall be signed and delivered to the Registrar of Corporations and shall set forth:

- (a) the name of the corporation;
- (b) the date its Articles of Incorporation were filed with the Registrar of Corporations and date of filing of amendments, if any;
- (c) that the corporation elects to dissolve and the reason for such dissolution; and
- (d) the manner in which the dissolution was authorised.

118. Judicial dissolution.

(1) A shareholders' meeting to consider adoption of a resolution to institute a special proceeding on any of the grounds specified under subsection (2) may be called, notwithstanding any provision in the Articles of Incorporation, by the holders of ten percent (10%) of all outstanding shares entitled to vote thereon, or if the Articles of Incorporation authorise a lesser proportion of shares to call the meeting, by such lesser proportion.

(2) A meeting under this section may not be called more often than once in any period of twelve (12) consecutive months. Except as otherwise provided in the Articles of Incorporation, the holders of one-half of all outstanding shares of a corporation entitled to vote in an election of directors may adopt at the meeting a resolution and institute a special proceeding in Nevis for dissolution on one (1) or more of the following grounds:

- (c) that there is internal dissension and two (2) or more factions of shareholders are so divided that dissolution would be beneficial to the shareholders;
- (d) that the acts of the directors are illegal, oppressive or fraudulent; and
- (e) that the corporate assets are being misapplied or wasted.

(3) If it appears, following due notice to all interested persons and hearing that any of the foregoing grounds for dissolution of the corporation exists, the High Court shall make a judgment that the corporation shall be dissolved.

(5) A shareholder of a corporation who complains that the affairs of the corporation are being conducted in a manner oppressive to some part of the shareholders (including himself), may make an application to the High Court by petition for an order under this section.

(6) If on any such application by a shareholder under subsection (5) the High Court is of the opinion:

- (a) that the corporation's affairs are being conducted as aforesaid; and
- (b) that to dissolve the corporation would unfairly prejudice that part of the shareholders, but otherwise the facts would justify the making of a dissolution order on the ground that it was just and equitable that the corporation should be dissolved;

then the High Court may, with a view to bringing to an end the matters complained of, make such order as it thinks fit, including but not limited to an order regulating the conduct of the corporation's affairs in the future, or for the purchase of the shares of any shareholders of the corporation by other shareholders of the corporation or by the corporation and, in the case of a purchase by the corporation, for the reduction accordingly of the corporation's capital, or otherwise.

(7) Where an order under this section makes any alteration in or addition to any corporation's Articles of Incorporation, then, notwithstanding anything in any other provision of this Ordinance but subject to the provisions of the order, the corporation concerned shall not have power without leave of the High Court to make any further alteration in or addition to the Articles of Incorporation with the provision of the order; but, subject to the foregoing provisions of this subsection, the alterations or additions made by the order shall be of the same effect as if duly made by resolution of the corporation and the provisions of this Ordinance shall apply to the Articles of Incorporation as so altered or added to accordingly.

(8) A copy of any order under this section altering or adding to, or giving leave to alter or add to, a corporation's Articles of Incorporation shall, within fourteen (14) days after the making thereof, be delivered by the corporation to the Registrar of Corporations for registration.

(5) A corporation removed from the register pursuant to subsection (3) may be restored to the register at any time, if to the satisfaction of the Registrar, the grounds for forfeiture of the Articles of Incorporation have been proven false. In such a case, the provisions of subsection (9) shall not apply to that corporation with respect to the payment of the fee for restoration.

(6) Where a corporation has been removed from the register of corporations for over three (3) years, the Registrar of Corporations may in his discretion, restore a corporation to the register of corporations at any time upon an application made by the corporation for restoration on the prescribed form and upon payment to Registrar of Corporations of the prescribed fees.

(7) A corporation making an Application for Restoration under this section shall submit to the Registrar of Corporations a statement that there has been no illegal activity perpetrated by the corporation or pending litigation against the corporation that would render the corporation undesirable in any way to be restored to the register of corporations.

(8) The Registrar shall, after removing any corporation from the register pursuant to subsection (3), give notice of removal in writing to the registered agent of the corporation specifying the allegations of criminal activity of which the corporation is accused and the corporation shall be given a period of fourteen (14) days to respond to the notice. If the corporation has no registered agent, then such notice shall be sent to the last known registered agent of the corporation.

(9) A corporation shall be restored to the register of corporations retroactive to the date of its removal and shall pay a fee for restoration to the register of corporations.

(4) The giving of such notice shall not constitute a recognition that any person is a proper creditor or claimant, and shall not revive or make valid or operate as a recognition of the validity of, or a waiver of any defence or counterclaim in respect of any claim against the corporation, its assets, directors, officers or shareholders, which has been barred by any statute of limitation or which has become invalid by any cause, or in respect of which the corporation, its directors, officers or shareholders, have any defense or counterclaim.
