payment is not made will be liable to be forfeited.

(4) Where a notice has been issued under this section and the requirements of the notice have not been complied with, the directors may, at any time before tender of payment, by resolution of directors forfeit and either cancel the shares to which the notice relates or dispose of the same and retain the entire proceeds for the benefit of the company.

(5) The company is under no obligation to refund any moneys to the member whose shares have been cancelled or disposed of pursuant to subsection (6) and that member shall be discharged from further obligation to the company.

18. –(1) Subject to any limitations in the Memorandum or Articles, shares in a company incorporated under this Act may be issued for such amount as may be determined from time to time by the directors, except that in the case of shares with par value, the amount shall not be less than the par value; and, in the absence of fraud, the decision of the directors as to the value of the consideration received by the company in respect of the issue is conclusive, unless a question of law is involved.

(2) A share issued by a company incorporated under this Act upon conversion of, or in exchange for, another share or a debt obligation or other security in the company, shall be treated for all purposes as having been issued for money equal to the consideration received or deemed to have been received by the company in respect of the other share, debt obligation or security.

(3) Subject to any limitations in the Memorandum or Articles, treasury shares may be disposed of by a company incorporated under this Act on such terms and conditions as the directors may determine.

19. Subject to any limitations in its Memorandum or Articles, a company incorporated under this Act may issue fractions of a share and unless and to the extent otherwise provided in the

20. The authorised capital, if any, of a company incorporated under this Act may be stated in more than one currency in which case the par value of the shares, if any, shall be expressed in the same currencies.

–(1) Upon the issue by a company incorporated under this Act of a share with par value, the consideration in respect of the share constitutes capital to the extent of the par value and the excess constitutes surplus.

(2) Subject to any limitations in the Memorandum or Articles, upon the issue by a company incorporated under this Act of a share without par value, the consideration in respect of the share constitutes capital to the extent designated by the directors and the excess constitutes surplus, except that the directors must designate as capital an amount of the consideration that is at least equal to the amount that the share is entitled to as a preference, if any, in the assets of the company upon liquidation of the company.

(3) Upon the disposition by a company incorporated under this Act of a treasury share, the consideration in respect of the share is added to surplus.

21.–(1) A share issued as a dividend by a company incorporated under this Act shall be treated for all purposes as having been issued for money equal to the surplus that is transferred to capital upon the issue of the share.

(2) In the case of a dividend of authorised but unissued shares with par value, an amount equal to the aggregate par value of the shares shall be transferred from surplus to capital at the time of the distribution.

(3) In the case of a dividend of authorised but unissued shares without par value, the amount designated by the directors shall be transferred from surplus to capital at the time of the distribution, except that the directors must designate as capital an amount that is at least equal to the amount that the shares are entitled to as a preference, if any, in the assets of the company upon liquidation of the company.

(4) A division of the issued and outstanding shares of a class or series of shares into a larger number of shares of the same class or series having a proportionately smaller par value does not constitute a dividend of shares.

22. –(1) Subject to any limitations in its Memorandum or Articles, a company incorporated under this Act may, by a resolution of directors, amend its Memorandum to increase or reduce its authorised capital, and in connection therewith, the company may,

- (a) increase or reduce the number of shares which the company may issue;
- (b) increase or reduce the par value of any of its shares; or
- (c) effect any combination under paragraphs (a) and (b) of this subsection.

(2) Where a company reduces its authorised capital under subsection (1), then, for purposes of computing the capital of the company, any capital that immediately before the reduction was represented by shares but immediately following the reduction is no longer represented by shares shall be deemed to be capital transferred from surplus to capital.

(3) A company shall, in writing, inform the Registrar of any increase or decrease of its authorised capital.

23. –(1) A company incorporated under this Act may amend its memorandum, to divide the shares, including issued shares, of a class or series into a larger number of shares of the same class or series; or

(a) to combine the shares, including issued shares, of a class or series into a smaller number of shares of the same class or series.

(2) Where shares are divided or combined under subsection (1), the aggregate par value of the new shares must be equal to the aggregate par value of the original shares.

–(1) Subject to any limitations in its Memorandum or Articles, a company incorporated under this Act may, by a resolution of its directors, amend its Memorandum either,

(b) to convert any of its shares, including issued shares, with par value into shares without par value; or

(c) to convert any of its shares, including issued shares, without par value into shares with par value.

(2) In the case of a conversion of shares with par value to shares without par value, an amount equal to the aggregate par value of the issued shares so converted shall be transferred from capital to surplus at the same time of the conversion.

(3) In the case of a conversion of shares without par value to shares with par value, an amount equal to the aggregate par value of the issued shares so converted shall be transferred from surplus to capital at the time of the conversion.

24. Shares of a company incorporated under this Act are personal property and are not of the nature of real property.

25.—(1) A company incorporated under this Act must state in its Articles whether or not certificates in respect of its shares shall be issued.

(2) If a company incorporated under this Act issues certificates in respect of its shares, the certificates,

- (a) must be signed by two directors or two officers of the company, or by one director and one officer; or
- (b) must be under the common seal of the company, with or without the signature of any director or officer of the company, and the Articles may provide for the signatures or common seal to be facsimiles.

(3) A certificate issued in accordance with subsection (2) of this section, specifying a share held by a member of the company is prima facie evidence of the title of the member to the share specified therein.

26. —(1) A company incorporated under this Act shall cause to be kept one or more registers to be known as “share registers” containing,

- (a) the names and addresses of the persons who hold registered shares in the company;

 - (iii) the date of issue of the certificate, but the company may delete from the register information relating to persons who are no longer members or information relating to shares issued to bearer that have been cancelled.

(2) The share register may be in any such form as the directors may approve but if it is in magnetic, electronic or other data storage form, the company must be able to produce legible evidence of its contents.

A copy of the share register, commencing from the date of the registration of the company, shall be kept at the registered office of the company referred to in section 42 of this Act or at the office of the registered agent referred to in section 43 of the Act.

(3) The share register is prima facie evidence of any matters directed or authorised by this Act to be contained therein.

(4) A company that wilfully contravenes this section is liable to a penalty of $25 for each day or part thereof during which the contravention continues, and a director who knowingly permits the contravention is liable to a like penalty.

27. –(1) If,

- (a) information that is required to be entered in the share register under section 31 of this Act, is omitted therefrom or inaccurately entered therein; or
- (b) there is unreasonable delay in entering the information in the share register, a member of the company, or any person who is aggrieved by the omission, inaccuracy or delay, may apply to the court for an order that the share register be rectified, and the court may either grant or refuse the application, with or without costs to be paid by the applicant, or order the rectification of the share register, and may direct the company to pay all costs of the application and any damages the applicant may have sustained.

(2) The court may, in any proceedings under subsection (1) of this section, determine any question relating to the right of a person who is a party to the proceedings to have his name entered in or omitted from the share register, whether the question arises between,

- (a) two or more members or alleged members; or
 - (b) between members or alleged members and the company,
- and generally the court may in the proceedings determine any question that may be necessary or expedient to be determined for the rectification of the share register.

28. –(1) Subject to any limitations in the Memorandum or Articles, registered shares of a company incorporated under this Act may be transferred by a written instrument of transfer signed by the transferor and containing the name and address of the transferee.

(2) In the absence of a written instrument of transfer mentioned in subsection (1) of this section, the directors may accept such evidence of a transfer of shares as they consider appropriate.

(3) A company shall not be required to treat a transferee of a registered share in the company as a member until the transferee's name has been entered in the share register.

(4) Subject to any limitations in its Memorandum or Articles, a company incorporated under this Act must, on the application of the transferor or transferee of a registered share in the company, enter in its share register the name of the transferee of the share.

(5) A transfer of registered shares of a deceased, incompetent or bankrupt member of a company incorporated under this Act made by his personal representative, guardian or trustee, as the case may be, or a transfer of registered shares owned by a person as a result of a transfer from a member by operation of law, is of the same validity as if the personal representative, guardian, trustee or transferee had been the registered holder of the shares at the time of the execution of the instrument of transfer.

(6) For the purposes of subsection (5) of this section, what amounts to incompetence on the part of a person is a matter to be determined by the court after having regard to all the relevant evidence and the circumstances of the case.

A share issued to bearer is transferable by delivery of the certificate relating to the share.

29.-(1) Where a governmental authority, whether it is legally constituted or not, in any jurisdiction outside Belize,

- (a) by or in connection with a nationalisation, expropriation, confiscation, coercion, force or duress, or similar action; or
- (b) by or in connection with the imposition of any confiscatory tax, assessment or other governmental charge, takes or seizes any shares or other interest in a company incorporated under this Act, the company itself or a person holding shares or any other interest in the company, including an interest as a creditor, may apply to the court for an order that the company disregard the taking or seizure and continue to treat the person who would have held shares or any other interest in the company but for the taking or seizure of the shares or other interest as continuing to hold the shares or other interest.

(2) Without affecting subsection (1) of this section, where a person whose shares or other interests have been taken or seized as referred to in subsection (1) of the section is other than a natural person, the person making the application under subsection (1) of the section, or the company itself, may apply to the court for an additional order for the company to treat the persons believed by the company to have held the direct or indirect beneficial interests in the shares or other interests in the company as the holder of those shares or other interests.

(3) The court may, upon application made to it under subsection (1) or (2) of this section,

- (a) grant such relief as it considers equitable and proper; and

- (b) order that any shares of or other interests in the company vest in such trustees as the court may appoint upon such trusts and for such purposes as the court determines.

30.—(1) Subject to any limitations in its Memorandum or Articles, a company incorporated under this Act may purchase, redeem or otherwise acquire and hold its own shares but only out of surplus or in exchange for newly issued shares of equal value.

(2) No purchase, redemption or other acquisition permitted under subsection (1) of this section, shall be made unless the directors determine that immediately after the purchase, redemption or other acquisition,

- (a) the company will be able to satisfy its liabilities as they become due in the ordinary course of its business; and
- (b) the realisable value of the assets of the company will not be less than the sum of its total liabilities, other than deferred taxes, as shown in the books of account, and its capital,

and, in the absence of fraud, the decision of the directors as to the realisable value of the assets of the company is conclusive, unless a question of law is involved.

(3) A determination by the directors under subsection (2) of this section, is not required where shares are purchased, redeemed or otherwise acquired,

- (a) pursuant to a right of a member to have his shares redeemed or to have his shares exchanged for money or other property of the company;
- (b) by virtue of a transfer of capital pursuant to section 38(1)(b)(iii) of this Act;

- (c) by virtue of the provisions of section 91 of this Act; and pursuant to an order of the court.

(4) Subject to any limitations in the Memorandum or Articles, shares that a company purchases, redeems or otherwise acquires may be cancelled or held as treasury shares unless the shares are purchased, redeemed or otherwise acquired by virtue of a reduction in capital in a manner that would be a contravention of the requirements of section 38 (3) of this Act, in which case they shall be cancelled but they shall be available for reissue; and upon the cancellation of a share, the amount included as capital of the company with respect to that share shall be deducted from the capital of the company.

31. Where shares in a company incorporated under this Act,

- (a) are held by the company as treasury shares; or
- (b) are held by another company of which the first company holds, directly or indirectly, shares having more than 50 per cent of the votes in the election of directors of the other company, the shares of the first company are not entitled to vote or to have dividends paid thereon and shall not be treated as outstanding for any purpose under this Act except for purposes of determining the capital of the first company.

32.—(1) Subject to any limitations in the Memorandum or Articles and subject to subsections (3) and (4) of this section, the capital of a company incorporated under this Act may, by a resolution of directors, be,

- (a) increased by transferring an amount of the surplus of the company to capital; or
- (b) reduced by,
 - (i) returning to members any amount received by the company upon the issue of any of its shares, the amount being surplus to the requirements of the company;

- (ii)* cancelling any capital that is lost or not represented by assets having a realisable value; or
- (iii)* transferring capital to surplus for the purpose of purchasing, redeeming or otherwise acquiring shares that the directors have resolved to purchase, redeem or otherwise acquire.

(2) No reduction of capital shall be effected that reduces the capital of the company to an amount that is less than the sum of,

- (a)* the aggregate par value of,
 - (i)* all outstanding shares with par value; and
 - (ii)* all shares with par value held by the company as treasury shares; and
- (b)* the aggregate of the amounts designated as capital of,
 - (i)* all outstanding shares without par value; and

- (ii) all shares without par value held by the company as treasury shares that are entitled to a preference, if any, in the assets of the company upon liquidation of the company.

(3) No reduction of capital shall be effected under subsection (1) of this section, unless the directors determine that immediately after the reduction,

- (a) the company will be able to satisfy its liabilities as they become due in the ordinary course of its business; and the realisable value of the assets of the company will not be less than its total liabilities, other than deferred taxes, as shown in the books of account, and its remaining capital, and, in the absence of fraud, the decision of the directors as to the realisable value of the assets of the company is conclusive, unless a question of law is involved.

33.—(1) Subject to any limitations in its Memorandum or Articles, a company incorporated under this Act may, by a resolution of its directors, declare and pay dividends in money, shares or other property.

(2) Dividends shall only be declared and paid out of surplus.

- (a) the company will be able to satisfy its liabilities as they become due in the ordinary course of its business; and

and, in the absence of fraud, the decision of the directors as to the realisable value of the assets of the company is conclusive, unless a question of law is involved.

34. Subject to any limitations in its Memorandum or Articles, a company incorporated under this Act may, by a resolution of directors, include in the computation of surplus for any purpose under this Act the net unrealised appreciation of the assets of the company, and, in the absence of fraud, the decision of the directors as to the value of the assets is conclusive, unless a question of law is involved.

–(1) A mortgage or charge of shares of a company incorporated under this Act must be in writing signed by, or with the authority of, the holder of the bearer share or the registered share to which the mortgage or charge relates.

(2) In the case of a bearer share, a mortgage or charge thereof is not valid and enforceable unless the certificate for the share to be mortgaged or charged is deposited with the mortgagee or chargee but the deposit of the certificate with the mortgagee or chargee shall not constitute a transfer of the bearer share, title to which shall only pass upon due compliance with the provisions of the law governing realisation of the security by the mortgagee or chargee.

(3) A mortgage or charge of shares of a company incorporated under this Act need not be in any specific form but it must clearly indicate,

- (a) the intention to create a mortgage or charge; and
- (b) the amount secured by the mortgage or charge or how that amount is to be calculated.

(4) A mortgage or charge of shares of a company incorporated under this Act may be governed by the law of a jurisdiction other than Belize but if a law other than the laws of Belize is specified as the governing law,

- (a) the mortgage or charge must be in compliance with the requirements of its governing law in order for the mortgage or charge to be valid and binding on the company; and
- (b) the remedies available to a mortgagee or chargee shall be governed by the governing law and the instrument creating the mortgage or charge save that the rights between the mortgagor or mortgagee as a member of the company and the company shall continue to be governed by the Memorandum and the Articles of the company and this Act.

If no law is specified to govern a mortgage or charge of shares of a company incorporated under this Act, the instrument creating the mortgage or charge shall be governed by the laws of Belize and, in the case of a default by the mortgagor or chargor on the terms of the mortgage, the mortgagee or chargee is entitled to the following remedies,

- (a) subject to any limitations or provisions to the contrary in the instrument creating the mortgage or charge, the right to sell the shares; and
- (b) the right to appoint a receiver who, subject to any limitations or provisions to the contrary in the instrument creating the mortgage or charge, may,
 - (i) vote the shares;

- (ii)* receive dividends and other payments in respect of the shares; and
- (iii)* exercise other rights and powers of the mortgagor or chargor in respect of the shares, until such time as the mortgage or charge is discharged.

(5) Subsection (5) of this section also applies to a mortgage or charge of shares of a company incorporated under this Act where the law of Belize is specified as the governing law.

(6) Subject to any provisions to the contrary in the instrument of mortgage or charge of shares of a company incorporated under this Act, all amounts that accrue from the enforcement of the mortgage or charge shall be applied in the following manner,

- (a)* firstly, in meeting the costs incurred in enforcing the mortgage or charge;
- (b)* secondly, in discharging the sums secured by the mortgage or charge; and thirdly, in paying any balance due to the mortgagor or chargor.

(7) The remedies referred to in subsection (5) of this section are not exercisable until,

- (a) a default has occurred and has continued for a period of not less than 30 days, or such shorter period as may be specified in the instrument creating the mortgage or charge; and
- (b) the default has not been rectified within 14 days from service of the notice specifying the default and requiring rectification thereof.

Where the registered agent of a company desires to cease to act as registered agent and the registered agent is unable to reach an agreement with the company for which he is registered agent concerning his replacement, the following provisions shall apply,

(a) is liable to a penalty of $25 for each day or part thereof during which the contravention continues, and a director who knowingly permits the contravention is liable to a like penalty; and

(3) The inadvertent failure to give notice of a meeting to a director, or the fact that a director has not received the notice, does not invalidate the meeting.

48. The quorum for a meeting of directors is that fixed by the Memorandum or Articles; but, where no quorum is so fixed, a meeting of directors is properly constituted for all purposes if at the commencement of the meeting one half of the total number of directors are present in person or by alternate.

90. Notwithstanding the provisions of this Act relating to winding-up and dissolution, a company incorporated under this Act may be wound-up by the court under any of the circumstances, in so far as they are applicable to a company incorporated under this Act, in which a company incorporated under the Companies Act, Cap. 250, may be wound-up by the court and, in that case, the provisions of the Companies Act, Cap. 250, relating to winding-up and dissolution apply mutatis mutandis to the winding-up and dissolution of the company.

91. The provisions of the Companies Act, Cap. 250, regarding receivers and managers govern mutatis mutandis the appointment, duties, powers and liabilities of receivers and managers of the assets of any company incorporated under this Act.

92. –(1) Notwithstanding section 6 of this Act, where the Registrar has reasonable cause to believe that a company incorporated under this Act no longer satisfies the requirements prescribed for an international business company under section 5 of the Act, the Registrar shall serve on the company a notice that the name of the company shall be struck off the register, unless the company or another person satisfies the Registrar within 30 days immediately following the date thereof that the name of the company should not be struck off.

(2) If the Registrar,

- (a) receives from the company a notice stating that the company no longer satisfies the requirements prescribed for an international business company under section 5 of this Act; or
- (b) does not receive a reply to the notice served on the company under subsection (1) of this section, or the Registrar shall strike the name of the company off the Register, and shall inform the registered agent of the company accordingly.

(3) The Registrar shall publish notice of the striking off in the Gazette.

(4) If a company has failed to pay the increased licence fee due under section 114(3) of this Act, the Registrar shall, within 30 days immediately following the date specified in that subsection, publish in the Gazette and serve on the company a notice stating the amount of the licence fee due under section 114(3) of the Act and stating that the name of the company will be struck off the Register if the company fails to pay the licence fee on or before the 31st December next ensuing.

(5) If a company fails to pay the increased licence fee stated in the notice referred to in subsection (4) of this section, by the 31st December referred to in that subsection, the Registrar shall strike the name of the company off the Register from the 1st January next ensuing.

(6) A company that has been struck off the Register under this section remains liable for all claims, debts, liabilities and obligations of the company, and the striking off does not affect the liability of any of its members, directors, officers or agents.

93. –(1) If the name of a company has been struck off the Register under section 107(4) of this Act, the company, or a creditor, member or liquidator thereof, may apply to the court to have the name of the company restored to the Register.

(2) If upon an application under subsection (1) of this section, the court is satisfied that,

(a) at the time the name of the company was struck off the Register, the company did satisfy the requirements prescribed for an International Business Company under section 5 of this Act; and it would be fair and reasonable for the name of the company to be restored to the Register, the court may order the name of the company to be restored to the Register upon payment to the Registrar of all fees due under section 113 of this Act and all licence fees due under section 114 of the Act without any increase for late payment, and upon restoration of the name of the company to the Register, the name of the company is deemed never to have been struck off the Register.

(3) If the name of a company has been struck off the Register under section 107(6) of this Act, the company, or a creditor, member or liquidator thereof, may, within 3 years immediately following the date of the striking off, apply to the Registrar to have the name of the company restored to the Register, and upon payment to the Registrar of,

(4) For purposes of this Part, the appointment of an official receiver under section 110 of this Act operates as an order to restore the name of the company to the Register.

- (b) continue to defend proceedings that were commenced against the company prior to the date of the striking-off; and
- (c) continue to carry on legal proceedings that were instituted on behalf of the company prior to the date of striking-off.

- (a) the company from incurring liabilities;
- (b) any creditor from making a claim against the company and pursuing the claim through to judgment or execution; or
- (c) the appointment by the court of an official liquidator for the company under section 110 of this Act. The court may appoint a person to be the official liquidator in respect of a company the name of which has been struck off the Register.

95. –(1) If the name of a company has been struck off the Register under section 107 of this Act and remains struck off continuously for a period of three years, the company shall be deemed to have been dissolved, but the Registrar may apply to the court on or before the expiration of the period of three years, to have the company put into liquidation, and a person appointed by the court shall be the official liquidator thereof.

(2) The duties of an official liquidator in respect of a company in liquidation pursuant to subsection (1) of this section are limited to,

- (a) identifying and taking possession of all assets of the company;
- (b) calling for claims by advertisement in the Gazette and in such other manner as he deems appropriate, requiring all claims to be submitted to him within a period of not less than 90 days immediately following the date of the advertisement; and
- (c) applying those assets that he recovers in the following order of priority,
 - (i) in satisfaction of all outstanding fees, licence fees and penalties due to the Registrar; and
 - (ii) in satisfaction pari passu of all other claims admitted by the official liquidator.

(3) In order to perform the duties with which he is charged under subsection (2) of this section, the official liquidator may exercise such powers as the court may consider reasonable to confer on him. The official liquidator may require such proof as he considers necessary to substantiate any claim submitted to him and he may admit, reject or settle claims on the basis of the evidence submitted to him.

(4) When the official liquidator has completed his duties, he shall submit a written report of his conduct of the liquidation proceedings to the Registrar and, upon receipt of the report by the Registrar, all assets of the company, wherever situate, that are not disposed of, vest in the Crown and the company is dissolved.

(5) The official liquidator is entitled to such remuneration out of the assets of the company for his services as the court approves, but if the company is unable to discharge all of its claims, debts, liabilities and obligations, payment of the official liquidator's remuneration shall be a charge on the Consolidated Fund.

(6) No liability attaches to an official liquidator,

- (a) to account to creditors of the company who have not submitted claims within the time allowed by him; or
- (b) for any failure to locate any assets of the company.

96. In any action or legal proceeding in which a company incorporated under this Act is plaintiff and the Registrar is joined as defendant or otherwise, the court may, on the application of the Registrar, order the plaintiff to provide sufficient security for the Registrar's costs, and may order that all proceedings in the action shall be stayed until the said security has been provided.

(2) All companies which are comprised in a particular PIC Group at the end of a particular basis year (the “group companies”) shall be charged to income tax on their combined chargeable income for that basis year, and for the purpose of ascertaining that combined chargeable income they shall be treated as if they were a single company.

(3) The single company referred to in subsection (2) of this section, in respect of a particular basis year shall for the purpose of the carrying forward of losses under section 15 of the Income and Business Tax Act, Cap. 55, be treated as the same single company as that in respect of any other basis year, notwithstanding any change in the identity of the group companies from one basis year to another.

(4) The single company referred to in subsection (2) of his section, for the purpose of the carrying forward of losses under section 15 of the Income and Business Tax Act, Cap. 55, be treated as carrying on the trade in which the loss was sustained for so long as any group company in any basis year actually carries on any trade or business.

subsection (2) of this section.

(11) Nothing contained in the Income and Business Tax Act shall require the Group Holding Company of a PIC Group to furnish any information relating to itself, including (but not limited to) its accounts.

107. and any such amendment shall take effect from such date (not being a date earlier than the date on which the regulations are made) as the regulations shall specify.
