

Antigua and Barbuda

Entrepreneurs seeking a tax free Caribbean base often choose to register an offshore company in Antigua and Barbuda.

Governed by the International Business Corporations Act, an Antigua IBC offers no corporate income, capital gains, or withholding taxes, fast incorporation within 24–48 hours, and electronic delivery of all documents.

There are no restrictions on foreign ownership or local directors, and shareholder and director information remains confidential. This flexible, stable jurisdiction is ideal for asset protection, intellectual property holding, and international trade.
